DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on October 31, 2006 has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 2 and 5 – 21 (now respectively renumbered 14, 18, 1 – 13, 16, 17, and 15) are allowed.

3. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art teaches a plurality of composition assist frames wherein each composition assist frame respectively corresponds to each of a plurality of shooting modes (i.e., shooting modes and composition assist frames are in one-to-one correspondence). In each individual shooting mode, an extracting device extracts a single composition assist frame according to the shooting mode selected. However, when the camera is operated and when more than one shooting mode has been selected, the extracting device has effectively extracted more than one composition assist frame. Furthermore, once a shooting mode is selected and the composition assist frame associated with that particular shooting mode is extracted, the composition assist frame is effectively selected. The closest prior art also teaches that for a landscape, a pan shot, and a portrait template, only one composition assist frame is associated with each selection.

However, the closest prior art does not teach or fairly suggest, prior to photographing an image, providing an image composition period wherein during the image composition period: a) a plurality of composition assist frames are extracted per selected shooting mode or per determined camera direction; and b) a single composition assist frame is selected from among the plurality of extracted composition assist frames.

4. Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
